Dear Parents,

Author Visit: Edward Treyer (Billy Bob Buttons)

I am delighted to advise you that the children's author, Edward Treyer will be visiting our school again on Monday 11th July 2016. Edward is the author of several children's and young adult's books, including the Felicity Brady series, Muffin Monster and the popular I Think I Murdered Miss.

On Monday, Edward will be hosting a workshop with Year 4 which will support their English learning. Edward will share his writing experiences, as well as teach the children all about the planning stage in their own writing.

At the end of the morning, there will also be our usual book signing opportunity for children across the school. All children are invited to bring in their copies of any of Edward's books which they already own and get them signed.

In addition, Edward will be selling copies of his new book called Wide Awake (appropriate for KS1 children). This book usually retails at £9.99, however on the day the price will be £4.95 which reflect a generous discount from Edward.

Furthermore, he will be taking pre-orders of the sequel to the popular I Think I Murdered Miss called Drowning Fish. This will also be available to pre-order at the discounted price of £4.95. Please note however that there is no obligation to buy any of the books and this opportunity is very much parental choice.

We very much look forward to this opportunity to welcome Edward back to our school and appreciate your continued support with these exciting events at The Bluecoat School.

Kind Regards

Miss S. Kinchin
