Dear parents

Our Celebration of Learning Event Thursday 19th November 2015

I would like to thank you all for your fantastic support for our Celebration of Learning Event last Thursday. We had a wonderful evening as a school community and having so many parents attend was really motivational for the children and staff. Your children were so proud to showcase their learning achievements for you all!

There is some amazing work on display in the new Y6 'Terrible Tudors' Literacy Gallery and lots of wonderful photographs from the evening of the children involved in their exciting new creative curriculum on the gallery section of our school website. If you were unable to attend last Thursday, I do hope that you find some time to come into school and enjoy the Gallery exhibition. We will all now look forward to the next celebration of learning event in the spring term!

School photographs

We are sending home your school photo proofs today. You will need to send back your orders together with full payment by Wednesday 2nd December 2015 ensure that your photographs are delivered in time for Christmas.
