Young Voices Concert - Friday 16th January 2015

LG Arena-Birmingham

Dear Parents

I am delighted to advise you that we will be taking our KS2 choir to the Young Voices concert at the Birmingham LG Arena again next year. The concert is on Friday 16th January 2015.

Our choir are busy rehearsing for the concert and are very excited about taking part again! We will be meeting all costs associated with the event for the choir members.

We will be leaving school at around 11am on the day and will return to school by approximately 11pm. We selected a Friday performance date so that the children do not need to attend school the next day after what will be a very busy but fantastic experience for them all.

You can find lots of information about the Young Voices concerts on their website at www.youngvoices.co.uk including details of the songs the children are learning this year and other exciting news and details about the forthcoming concerts.

We may have the opportunity to take a very limited number of parents (up to 10) with us to the event. However, I cannot confirm this until the New Year. When the final number of places is known, any parents wishing to join us will be entered into a draw for the available places at that time.

If however, you wish to be certain of being able to attend the concert, we are able to apply for tickets on your behalf at a cost of £19.50 per person. Please note that you would need to make your own travel arrangements if you decide to purchase your own tickets.

I am attaching a parent ticket order form and should you wish us to order any tickets on your behalf, please complete the form requesting tickets for Friday 16th January 2015 and return it to us by this Wednesday 1st October 2014 with your cheque or cash. We will then do our best to obtain the tickets for you. We will place our final order on Friday Tuesday 3rd October 2014 at 4pm so please return your order forms by this date and time to avoid disappointment.

Kind regards

Carol Hines
